Skiservice Corvatsch is a family-run business with a network of 16 stores throughout the Engadin valley including exclusive locations on the mountain. We are the leading destination in the Engadin for fashion, sports equipment, skis, bootfitting and ski rental.

Active Alpine Lifestyle is our slogan and philosophy. It stands for joy, movement, vitality and a deep connection with nature. Authenticity, reliability and hospitality are the values we believe in and live by.

We are looking for a new team member starting on 23 November 2026, or by agreement.

Cross-Country Ski Specialist (m/w/d)

Employment level: 80–100%

What we offer:
You will become part of a dedicated team in the heart of the beautiful Engadin mountains. You can look forward to a friendly, family-like working environment with experienced, motivated and supportive colleagues. Alongside the opportunity to enjoy winter in this unique region, you will receive thorough training to help you advise our guests with confidence and enthusiasm.

Your responsibilities

- Advising guests, renting out and selling cross-country and alpine skiing equipment
- Looking after our guests and ensuring they have a great experience
- Maintaining and preparing cross-country skiing equipment
- Supporting the daily running of the shop

Your profile

- You are passionate about cross-country skiing and know which skis are right for each guest, trail and level of ability?
- You enjoy working with people and advising guests with knowledge and enthusiasm?
- You are flexible, reliable, self-motivated and a team player.
- You have good German and English language skills. Italian is an advantage.

Does this sound like you?
Then we would love to hear from you! Send your application by email to Sascha Hosennen at personal@skiservice-corvatsch.com and tell us about your Active Alpine Lifestyle.
